THE MCDONALD GALLERY
AT THE GURKHA MUSEUM

Photography by Tim Ireland and Joe Low

ABOUT THE SPACE

THE FACILITIES

The McDonald Gallery is a magnificent function room within The Gurkha Museum. The Gallery houses the Museum's unique and extremely valuable picture, silver, medal and badge collections and as such is an integral part of the Museum display area. It is used for exhibitions and education workshops and is available to hire for private functions. Furnished throughout to the highest standards including a private bar area and kitchen as well as the main dining area.

CONFERENCES, LUNCHESES & DINNERS

Functions within the McDonald Gallery cover lunches and dinners, seminars and conferences, receptions, lectures, drinks and more. We can work with you to tailor an event to suit your needs and offer a variety of drinks and food packages. We can hold up to 60 for a lunch or dinner, 30 for a board meeting and 80 for drinks receptions.

WEDDINGS

With close proximity to Winchester's Registry Office, The Gurkha Museum is the perfect venue for a small and intimate wedding reception within the grand backdrop of the Peninsula Barracks. We have a large range of drinks and catering options available.

"Please pass on my very great gratitude to your Gurkha staff who were just quite excellent and looked after us so very well. They are Stars. The whole event went like clockwork and all really enjoyed the day. Thank you, Gurkha Museum."

"The organisation, the dinner and the hospitality were all excellent, and in the setting of your strikingly impressive room. This was a very exciting and memorable occasion, thank you again."

"A very sincere thank you to you and the Gurkha staff for the excellent service we had for our luncheon. Everything went smoothly and with great discretion. Everyone remarked on how attentive they were, and it was a pleasure arranging the event with you. Thank you very much. You will certainly be our first port of call should we ever wish to arrange another event."
