God's House Tower

God's House Tower (GHT) is a stunning multi-purpose venue at the entrance to Southampton's fascinating Old Town. Set within the city's medieval defensive walls, GHT offers a unique glimpse into Southampton's past, and after an extensive refurbishment is now enjoying its newest reincarnation as a cutting edge arts and heritage venue.

We have a number of unique spaces housed in this iconic monument. From intimate wedding receptions and parties to training days and corporate events, our spaces are available to hire in combination or individually to create a bespoke event in truly memorable surroundings.

GHT at a glance

GHT Spaces - The Crawford Room

A self-contained and flexible space, the Crawford Room is the perfect location for drinks receptions, meetings, study days, talks and workshops. This oldest corner of the building - with its ancient wooden beamed roof - provides a dramatic backdrop overlooking the cobbled streets of the historic Old Town with views towards Town Quay.

Catering

Daytime Catered Events

Our in-house cafe offer features fresh local produce including sandwiches, cakes and baked goods, as well as locally sourced coffee.

Pre order is available to suit a range of diets and preferences as well as a cash option for a minimum of 20 guests.

Evening and Event Catering

We can recommend our favourite tried and tested caterers to suit your preferences and budget.

The courtyard is the perfect spot for an outdoor pop-up or mobile catering van, and we are happy to work with you to find your ideal caterer.

As well as a day time cafe service we have a small in-house selection of locally brewed beers and a capsule wine collection which can be served throughout any day time or evening event. Our flexible offer means we can set up a pop-up bar anywhere in the building, including for rooftop drinks receptions.

We work with local suppliers to create a bespoke wine list for special events. Seasonal offers are also available throughout the year and we can design a drinks list to suit your and your guests preferences.
